The Simplicity of a

MAXWELL

is Due to Special Steels

A Maxwell is a simple car. Its engine, axles, clutch, transmission and gears are the utmost in simplicity, which is the goal of scientific engineering.

Special steels have made this possible. They are steels made to Maxwell's own formulae, the result of thousands of tests and years of analysis.

These steels give a Maxwell the remarkable combination of extra strength and lightness in weight.

In this way complicated construction has been avoided. Simple design has naturally followed and to this simplicity rare strength has been added by the use of these special steels.

Strains, twists, thrusts, shocks and blows are protected against in many other cars by reinforcements, extra weight in metals used, and a design that obviously is anything but simple.

In a Maxwell this simplicity has made the car easier to build, and it therefore is better built, easier to drive, and easier to care for.

That this should win friends for Maxwell is almost too obvious to call attention to.

Nearly 400,000 persons now drive a Maxwell, which is a very definite endorsement.

NATIONALS SPLIT WITH THE RED SOX

Sox Take Saturday's Championship Game, 14 to 4—Nationals Win Sunday 3 to 2.

With a patched lineup including only three regulars the Samson Sox lost Saturday to the Red Sox in the first game of the city series staged at the fair grounds. Important work at the big plant kept most of the regular lineup busy Saturday so the team that represented them was mostly pickups and 14 errors tell the tale without going into detail. The Sox boys showed one address in the first on a single, a stolen base and an error by Britt. Berger then tightened up and held his own until the ninth when the Nationals started a belated rally pushing three runs over Sanger who took left field in the eighth, waited for a walk, Serviss got into the game on a single, and Miller stepped in with his fourth hit and second triple of the day driving the two runs in and securing a tie for the Sox. The Sox at last, when Hallett played one in the first baseman's mitt. Fire next up was nicked by a pitched ball but was rescued by a sacrifice for the third out. Score was 14-4.

Sunday with their regular lineup in the field the Nationals took the Sox in the second game. The Sox, however, were not without a few surprises. The Nationals' new southpaw and "Pete" Fleming of the Sox, Lamphiere had the edge on the Sox in the matter of strikeouts setting nine men by that method while Fleming pitched seven. Each issued two passes and Fleming nicked one with a pitched ball. Each gave five hits. A glance at the box score will show about as even and tight a game as a fan could wish for but the Sox were out of luck. The Sox men who turned out were outnumbered by the players. It is too bad that the fans will not patronize the other team teams when the Sox are absent for they go to lots of expense as in the case when the Rockford Colts were brought up here June 5 and 6. The receipts for the two days did not pay for the advertising and the other expenses were clear loss.

To get back to the game "Cutliss" waited and received a free ticket to first. Miller singled through the third baseman and both moved up on a passed ball while Kasmarek was striking out. "Art" Schwind, who was out of the game for the first time, filed out to center field and Cutliss scored after the catch. In the second, Vingers led off with a single through short. Lamphiere was given life on a fielders choice and Roberts singled to left center filling the bases. Fleming then lost control and hit Borden forcing Vingers and center field. That ended the scoring for both sides.

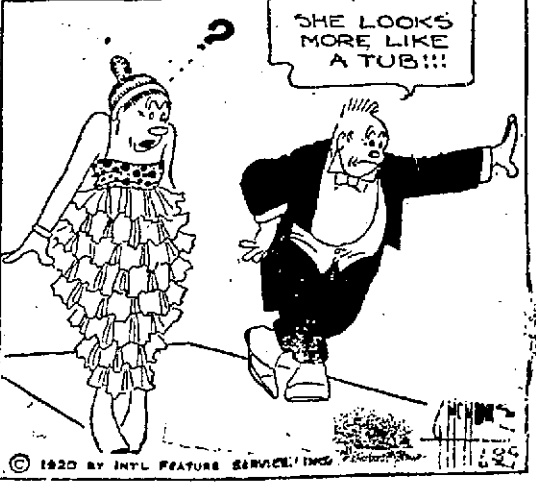

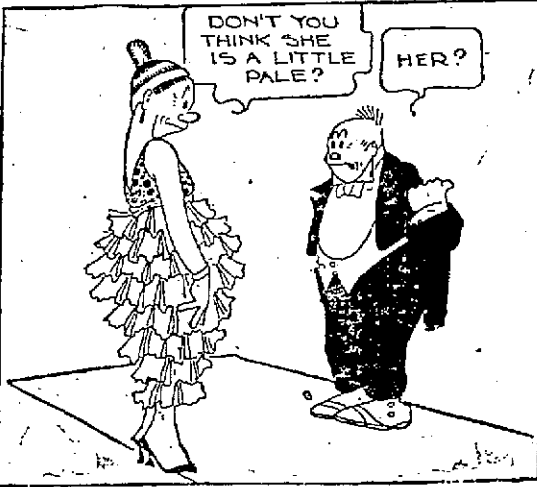

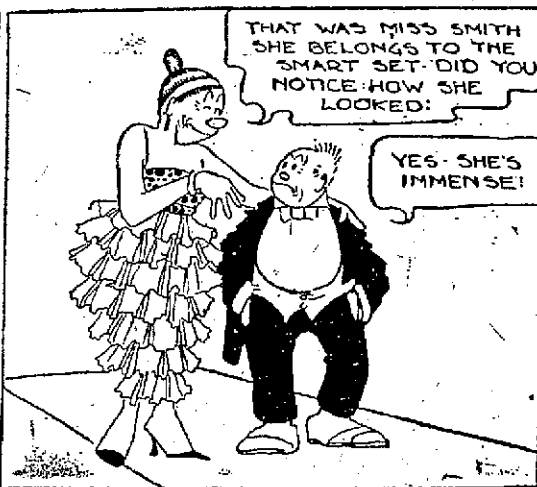

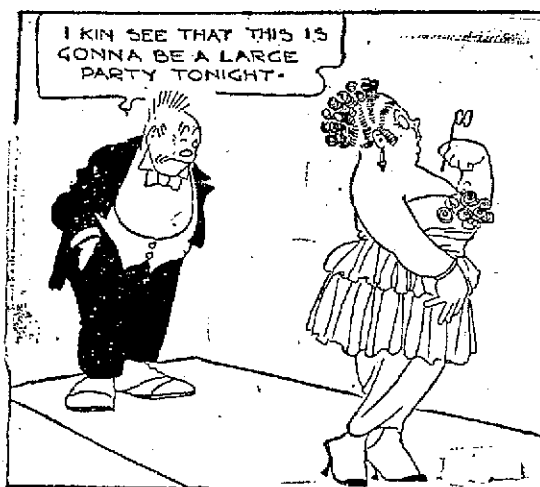

In five of the nine innings Lamphiere only faced three men to the inning and as the Sox were afraid of that left hand they took no leads off first, the only man trying to steal being nipped at second. In the sixth he set three down in a row on strikes, an din the fifth he retired the side on four pitched balls. The box score follows:

Whitewater and Juneau only two hits and before he woke up eleven runs had crossed the plate in the game between the Ports and Jefferson. Port Atkinson took the game easily by a score of 13 to 1. Brodie was taken out of the box after he had been hit all over the lot and was replaced by "Lefty" Miller. After the first inning the game was a hard fought affair, but the big lead was too much handicap for the Jeffs to overcome. Reins on the hill for the Ports was in rare form.

Waupun and Watertown battled through nine innings of real baseball and the final count was 5 to 4 favoring Waupun. Both teams played excellent ball, but the game was turned by fast and clever fielding on both teams.

EXCELLENT OPENING IN COLLEGE TENNIS
Haverdale, June 29.—The first day's play in the intercollegiate lawn tennis championship tournament, which opened at the Merion Cricket club, furnished some excellent tennis, but no surprises, all the favorites surviving the preliminary and first rounds. In the second round match played, A. W. J. A. defeated S. A. A. in straight sets.

Fifteen Princeton Men To Compete at Oxford
London, June 29.—Fifteen Princeton athletes who are here to compete with Oxford in ten standard field events, July 8, will participate in the British amateur athletic association championships on Saturday.

Professor John Grier Hibben and Professor Howard McClellan, president and dean respectively of the Princeton university, will attend the meet. The American athletes are training at Oxford university.

SPENCER'S STABLE LEAVES NEXT WEEK

Consisting of Five Horses, It Turned Out at Local Park.

George Spencer will leave the first part of the month to take his stable of horses and trailers into the Illinois Valley circuit. After a long and careful preparation by Mr. Spencer, there never was a stable of horses that looked any more fit for the contest than this one.

Five in Stable.
The stable consists of Expression, a 2½ year old; Nellie Lightfoot, 2:22 trotter; The Bronco Queen, a green pacer; and Miss Mitchell, a green pacer. All have been staged in the Illinois circuit.

Miss Mitchell is owned by Alfred Mitchell of this city and looks like a high class green trotter.

Charles E. Elver of Madison was here yesterday and saw his horse, Expression, get her final preparation. John McVas of Chicago is here today to see Nellie Lightfoot, The Bronco Queen, and a three year old pacer by Anvil, take their final preparation. Mr. McVas is a great lover of the harness horse and is very much pleased with the conditions of his stable, feeling that they will make a good showing for themselves.

Lein Azoff, by the great Sir, Azoff, will make "em step in" and better his time. The race will be held at the local track on Wednesday.

Walter Grunsee has purchased the buildings on what was formerly the John Setzer property, and is moving them to his farm.

COOKSVILLE
[By Gazette Correspondent.]
Cooksville, June 29.—The Community club met with Mrs. Cole Wednesday of last week. The new officers presided. It was decided the next meeting would be a picnic at Stebbinsville in two weeks. About 55 were present and enjoyed the supper.

Strawberries were plentiful the past week, but few were canned for lack of sugar.

Jack and John played for a wedding in Center last week at which about 200 were present. The following night they played for a dance at Tom Stebbins.

Lorin Johnson, who had been in failing health since he had pneumonia last winter, died Friday night. The funeral was held Monday afternoon.

Torphen Catlin, who went to California for his health last winter, and who failed just since his return in the spring, died Friday morning. He leaves a wife and family.

Miss Susan Porter returned to her home here last Tuesday, after finishing her school work in Racine for the year. She went to Madison Sunday to attend summer school.

Peas are being harvested at the Chester Miller farm for the canning factory.

There were three large dinner parties at the "House Next Door" last week. They were from St. Louis, Madison, and Janesville.

Chicago, June 29.—Word was received here today of the death of Charles Edward Davies, sportsman, well known in the sporting world at Bedford, Va., yesterday. The body will be brought here for burial.

Davies came into prominence in the early '80s as manager of Dan O'Leary, the champion walker. He afterward took over the management of Peter Jackson, colored heavyweight champion and under Davies' direction Jackson fought a draw with James J. Corbett lasting 60 rounds.

Davies was born in county Antrim, Ireland, July 7, 1851.

No sir-ee, bob!

No premiums with Camels—all quality!

CAMELS quality plus Camels expert blend of choice Turkish and choice Domestic tobaccos pass out the most wonderful cigarette smoke you ever drew into your mouth!

And, the way to prove that statement is to compare Camels puff-by-puff with any cigarette in the world!

Camels have a mild mellowness that is as new to you as it is delightful. Yet, that desirable "body" is all there! They are always refreshing—they never tire your taste.

Camels leave no unpleasant cigarette aftertaste nor unpleasant cigarette odor! Your say-so about Camels will be:

"My, but that's a great cigarette".

Camels are sold everywhere in scientifically sealed packets of 20 cigarettes for 20 cents; or ten packages (200 cigarettes) in a glassine-paper-covered carton. We strongly recommend this carton for the home or office supply when you travel.

HENLEY REGATTA ON THAMES TOMORROW

Henley on Thames, England, June 29.—The rowing crews training here for the regatta on Wednesday spent a busy week-end. The Americans are displaying a keen interest in the performances of the Magdalene college and Leander crews. The former, which is regarded as one of the most promising of the English crews, covered the full course on Monday in 7 minutes and 14 seconds, while Leander made the distance in 7 minutes and 20 seconds. The Americans contented themselves with a half course row, which they made in 3 minutes and 33 seconds.

We Have Just Divided Profits

This bank divides profits with our patrons.

The first of July and the first of January we credit the account of every saving depositor with their share of the profits for the past six months.

This time we have divided nearly $7,000 in interest money among the depositors. This helps a lot to make the accounts grow—it is money that comes to those who are willing to be thrifty.

Why not get your share of this interest money next January? You can start with a single dollar or as much more as you can spare and make deposits each week of a dollar or more.

This plan pays—and it is sure to win.

THE DIARY OF AN ENGAGED GIRL

Filled with an infinite melancholy, such as is foreign to my sunny nature, I descended to my morning and partook of my meal in silence.

Aunt Cecilia thought that I must be ill, but I shook my head at her, and said it was a century-old illness of the spirit only.

After breakfast she followed me into my room, and put her arms round me and kissed me to tell what was troubling me. Of course I couldn't tell everything, but I did sketch an outline of my feelings about being sent up to Boston, and about many other things.

As usual she was sympathetic, and incontinently told me that Cecil had asked her to ask me to meet him at the Metropolitan Museum at one o'clock. She told me this, but believe me, I am so weary of men and the problems they bring to the heart and soul, that I could not even think of not but an ecstasy under her smile.

With a sweet weary smile asked her not to forget to tell Cecil that I was going down to "Hope Farm" on the morning, or next day at least, and that she had promised Dorcy and Jack to go with me.

I know that that little visit will help much. I also know that I am hungering for a sight of the friends I love, and I am sure that I shall find all my faults and in spite of them.

While we were talking, Morgan Travers called me up and asked me if I could come to the city with him in the morning, as he was hard pressed for a model, and so on and so forth. He got me to be at his studio at 10 in the morning, rain or shine, and felt better after I had done so.

Aunt Cecilia sort of smiled at me.

Heart and Home Problems

BY ELIZABETH THOMPSON
Letters May be Addressed to Mrs. Thompson, in Care of the Gazette

Dear Mrs. Thompson: A young man has asked me to go to a picnic with him. Am I supposed to provide the lunch?

DOUBTFUL.

Usually, the girl provides the lunch. If I were you I would ask the young man if he would like to have you take the lunch. He probably expects you to and the situation would not be embarrassing if you did not.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am 18 years old and engaged to be married. I love him but I am sure he loves me better. There is another boy (but he is not among the best) as he is rather roughy when I once went with him. He still cares for me, but I have not seen him for some time. When he is around in a bad mood or near me, he goes to a different and a little worried afterward. Why do I feel this way?

FOLLY.

My dear girl, I cannot advise you too strongly not to marry "soon." You do not love the young man you expect to marry and if you enter into a hasty marriage you will have a greater part of your life. You are very young and should be enjoying the freedom of girlhood. Think of the terrible thing it would be to find the man you could love with your whole soul after you are married. You probably feel you cannot trust your fiance as you will have to be breaking your engagement. Remember that he is only a boy and that time will heal the wound. It will be time to tell him the great blessing of a wife's love.

It might be a wise plan to tell him you are undecided, if that is the way you feel. If, however, you are constantly telling yourself how fine he is and trying to love him, the kindest thing you can do is to break the engagement definitely and at once. Love goes where it will and cannot be forced.

Your regard for the other young man does not mean love. He has a magnanimous congeniality of tastes and thought as well as the pleasure in having the loved one near.

"A Blonde!" Do not hint that you object to the other girl. He seems to want you as a friend and not as a sweetheart. If you are satisfied with such a relationship, accept it without

CAB DRIVERS MUST PAY HIGHER FEES

Council Demands $10 Per Driver Instead of $2—$25 for Each Cab.

Declaring for a more rigid enforcement of automobile driving regulations and for the holding of taxicab rates to those authorized by the council last night also revamped the old taxicab and drivers license ordinance and increased the rates materially. Under the new ordinance, which was given its third reading and rushed through to be effective July 1, the tax will be $25 for each taxicab and $10 for each driver. Under the old schedule the charges were $25 for the first car and $5 for each additional and $2 for a chauffeur's license.

Ald. J. J. Dunn and Ald. L. D. Horn strongly voiced their opinions as to fares charged and the necessity of "clamping down" on speeding taxis. Horn declaring "They're a menace to the city."

Washington Is Speedway
That North Washington street since River side park opened is the favorite speedway of the hired motor cars as well as lots of others and that families along this thoroughfare are kept awake by the early hours of the morning by the speeding motors and their joy-riding occupants, was Mr. Horn's declaration.

The motor cop comes out their and they have him spotted the first thing with his single light. You see them all slow down. But when he's gone they speed up again. I believe we should authorize the chief of police to hire an automobile and load it up with policemen to take the numbers of these speeders.

Fares Are Inconsistent
The council approved the suggestion and ordered the fire and police committees to make such arrangements.

Ald. Dunn said taxi fares are not consistent and that something should be done to bring them into line. He proposed for 25 cents for the first mile or any fraction thereafter.

Because Edward Wandall has been arrested for speeding there was considerable discussion as to approving his application for a chauffeur's license. It was held up for the time being until the council could be sure of the facts.

Improvement Seen
IN RAILROAD STRIKES
(By Associated Press.)
Philadelphia, June 29.—General improvement was indicated today in the trainmen's strike situation according to a statement issued by the Pennsylvania railroad. "The force is now 91 per cent of the maximum."

Strikers say they are concentrating on efforts to bring out a railway men's union, telegraphers and other classes of employees tomorrow.

COUNCIL SIDELIGHTS

The session lasted three hours and five minutes.

Licenses.
August Hager was granted a building contractor's license. The application for license to deal in junk, by M. M. Goldfish, was held up pending investigation of the site of the dealer's yard.

Bill Laid Over.
Believing that the bill of the Weber Construction company for labor and material on the Detention hospital, $283.50, as excessive, it was laid over for investigation. Bills for salaries, labor and material for the month of May were ordered paid.

Five Street Lights.
Lights were ordered on the intersections of Blackhawk and Racine, Racine and Clark, Fremont and Clark, and Fremont and Carington, and the light recently moved south on Oak street at Western avenue was ordered replaced.

Sidewalk Ordered.
Ald. Horn put through an order for walks on the Holman and Schermerhorn properties on the south side of River street between North Franklin and North River streets.

C. of C. Notice Received.
A communication from the Janesville Retail Merchants' association recommending and announcing that body's willingness to cooperate in the elimination of the midges nuisance, on the downtown traffic regulation, and for parallel parking in the downtown district, was ordered placed on file.

To Fix Boiler.
F. E. Granger is to repair the boiler at the city hall at a cost not to exceed $200.

THOUSANDS TO TAKE PART IN FIELD DAY

300 Farmers from Rock To Gather at Madison Tomorrow.

Wisconsin, through activities of the agriculture department of its university, has become known throughout the country as one of the most progressive farming states in the union. Only recently the magazine of the United States Chamber of Commerce, "The Nation's Business," published a long article telling how the Badger state overcame many natural difficulties of soil and climate through the constant experiments of its agricultural station.

To Study Methods
But while the farmers have been reaping the benefits of the advice and work of this branch of the university, few of them have had an opportunity to see the place first hand and study its methods. With a view to giving them a chance to know what their state is doing, a Station Day will be held at Madison tomorrow, when it is expected thousands of farmers and their wives will journey to the state capital.

Rock county will send close to 300 delegates; Jefferson, Green, Dane and Waushara counties will each send as many.

Plans have been made to keep the visitors entertained from the time they arrive at 11 a. m. until they move in the afternoon. The women will be taken under charge by Mrs. Jones and shown the model farm house and its modern appliances for making living in the country more comfortable. While they are at that, the men will be shown the latest in farm machinery. The children will be entertained with games in another part of the Hill farm.

AIRPLANE HERE FOR WEEK; ANOTHER IS BROUGHT IN PIECES

An airplane, belonging to H. E. Ludington, Whitewater, landed in this city Sunday for a stay of a week during which time passengers will be taken for flights.

Mr. Ludington bought the plane and took it to his home a week ago. L. E. Matheson, of the Royal Flying Corps is pilot.

Damage of $2,000 was done to an airplane, owned by P. Schagel and James McCartney, the corner of Rockford and the later manager of the Reynolds' studio, this city, when the plane fell in a small field in Beloit, Friday.

Mr. McCartney stated today the wings were completely demolished, although no damage was done to the engine. The cost of the plane was $4,000 he said. The remains were brought to this city yesterday on trucks to be stored here until later, when new wings will be made for it. The other owner, P. Schagel was going up with an ex-service man, who had control of the machine, but who made a poor turn and lost control.

29 DAYS REMAIN TO ELIMINATE GRATINGS

Property owners have just 29 days left in which to eliminate gratings from their sidewalks, according to F. J. Blair, city building inspector, in whose hands has been placed the ordinance passed by the council 11 months ago. The ordinance pertaining to what must be done to comply with the law.

Several gratings on East Milwaukee street were done away with last week by filling in with cement, making a decided improvement in sidewalks. Other owners of property in the downtown section are expected to begin making their improvements this week.

The ordinance was passed July 29, 1919 to become effective one year from date.

Prominent Michigan Judge Called by Death

Eaton Rapids, Mich., June 29.—Robert M. Montgomery, presiding justice of the United States court, died at his home here Sunday. He was born May 12, 1849, and was at one time chief justice of the Michigan Supreme court.

WILSON FORCES CONTROL CONVENTION

Mr. Cummings' speech. The only issue he did not deal with directly in his keynote address was that over a party statement on prohibition enforcement.

Mr. X for Dry Modification

The X issue may be wrapped up the fate of some aspirants for the presidential nomination. The battle has come to the surface in a caucus of the New York delegation which voted without roll call to urge modification of the enforcement of "gang" rule charges and assertions that a floor battle were insisted upon by the New Yorkers, the chances at the polls would be ruined.

Local Adoo Prospects Brighter

Events so far have shown marked reaction overnight on discussion of nomination. There seems to be a general feeling that prospect of Mr. Adoo's selection has increased, but there was not definite development upon which it could be based by those who took this view.

Builders Warned TO GET PERMITS

Notices are being sent out by the city building department, and the council, advising the building industry of the ordinance passed by the council January 13, 1920, which requires that permits must be obtained for several kinds of construction.

PROMINENT ATHLETE OF MONROE IS DEAD

[By Gazette Correspondent.]
Monroe, June 28.—Herman W. Burg, 493 West Avenue, passed away Thursday afternoon. Up to a week ago he was able to be up and about, and while the general symptoms showed no alarm, he showed extreme weakness. He appeared to be completely exhausted to show new interest but a few days ago he planned for his going, saying, he was ready.

As a student in the Monroe high school he was a star player on the football team of the school, where he earned his full share of honor. He came to the town of Monroe from the local school in 1912, he attended the university of Wisconsin and returning he took a position with the Lewis Hardware Co., where he remained until his sudden illness.

Surviving him are his widow, his mother, Mrs. Barbara Burg, one brother and seven sisters.

Car Is Damaged
A Dodge touring car, one of a string of cars being driven out from Koshong to Dubuque, was damaged Wednesday evening and the driver narrowly escaped injury when the car crashed over the embankment near the Louth farm east of the city. The top, fender and windshield of the car were damaged. The driver was not injured. The car was driven by a man not familiar with the road and in not familiar with the turn going north, went over the embankment, the back of the front seat struck a fence post, thus preventing the car from turning. The driver escaped without a scratch.

A Big Shipment of the Famous Wirthmor Blouses

Just in time for the Fourth and at the price of only, each $2.00

For these warm Summer days the Cotton Blouse is quite the thing. Wirthmor Blouses are made of quality fabrics, they will stand repeated tubbings, coming back from the laundry each time with that freshness and crispness that was their possession when first bought.

Two Dollars is an exceedingly small sum to pay today for a worthy blouse, when cotton and cotton fabrics cost more than four times what they did a few years ago. Come in and see the attractive new Wirthmor Blouses that go on sale tomorrow and at only..... $2.00
